

Digital resources to help you (red means this is what you will see/click on the pg).

- 1) <http://www.faithcentral.co.nz> This is a website that supports teachers in Catholic schools ie YOU (including teachers or RE).
 - + Go to Chapel (along top menu)
 - + Dropdown to Prayer resource
 - <http://www.prayingeachday.org/prayersites.html> provides an incredible number of links to other on-line prayer sites.
 -
 - <http://www.todayismygifttoyou.ie/> A reflection accompanied by a photo that changes daily and has a great archive.
 - <http://www.sacredspace.ie/> is an Irish Jesuit prayer site worth exploring.
 - Pray-as-you-go – Daily prayer for your MP3 player. A Jesuit media initiative.
 -
 - The following De La Salle brothers site provides an incredible number of links to other on-line prayer sites.

- 2) Tui Motu <http://www.tuimotu.org/>

An Independent Catholic monthly Magazine since 1997 in Aotearoa NZ.

Tui Motu is a Maori phrase meaning “stitching the islands together ...”, bringing the different races and peoples and faiths into relationship.

Tui Motu-InterIslands is a thought-provoking, reflective and informative magazine. It invites readers to question, challenge and contribute to its discussion of spiritual, social and ecological issues in the light of gospel values, and in the interests of a more just and peaceful society. Inter-church and inter-faith dialogue is welcomed.

+ blessings (blessing prayers)

+ explore more (music for the spirit)

- 3) Caritas <http://www.caritas.org.nz> Catholic Justice, Aid and Advocacy entity.

Pacifica student in your class - Caritas has some of its resources in Tongan
<http://www.caritas.org.nz/resources>

+ schools

+ Schools' resources

+ Lent in schools

+ Lent in schools (or social justice in schools)

+ Lent module

+ Climate change prayer book (for prayer or ppts or videos – video range between 1-5 minutes)